The second story, The Memory Maker, Girl In The Mirror much better. Nothing in Girl at Mirror is where it permanently belongs— the mirror leaning against the chair, the stool the girl has scooted into the middle of the room, the hand held mirror, brush, and make-up on the floor, the doll cast aside. Girl in the Mirror ended far too abruptly and left me feeling confused and wanting to find out exa I have to agree with the other comments about this book, I was disappointed.
