Friedrich Hebbel: Selected Essays. Studien zur politischen Theorie. Series Schriften der Theodor Fontane Gesellschaft 11 pp. Lofz: Ibidem, The one volume edition is a condensed version. It examines a range of issues, including lexical access, morphological syntactical processing, and the production and reception of discourse. The details are worth summarizing here, because of their contribution to the surge of German nationalism in the 19th Century and their significance for National Socialist ideology. The study begins from two premises not previously considered together: that written communication represents a social reality sui generis, and that this social reality is constituted in the medium of writing.
