Ooh, Shiny! How high are the chances that those folks will be able to accept a dramatic change of life, one that means that they must produce their food, dig a latrine, and solve their own problems? Learn. Most folks just buy the answers to all of their problems and they have lost the ability to think. Many question whether true compassion exists at all—or whether it is inherently motivated by self-interest.

It cannot only lead to altruistic behavior that changes the world for the better. we shall find that, in a modified form, the instincts remain throughout life as fundamentally important factors in the evolution of volition and in the foundation of character.
