Jude Commentary - John Gill's Exposition of the Bible

There is a parallel to the cultural ideology brought to us by Cain and that practiced today.

Jude 11, Going in the Way of Cain

I. THE WAY OF CAIN IS THE WAY OF SINNERS IN GENERAL. 1. A way of ignorance. He murdered his brother because he hated him; he hated him because.

THE WAY OF CAIN

The subject for this morning in the exposition of Genesis chapter 4 is the way of Cain. It is Jude, the brother of our Lord, who speaks of the way of Cain.

I wonder about many worship services today. This similarity might suggest that there eventually came to be communication and correspondence between these two groups.

The idea of calling upon the name of the Lord is a concept that we will trace through. In the case of Korah, Moses and Korah actually had a worship contest! That often happens with firstborn and second born. You cannot measure it by knowledge or even by activities. Cain built a city and named it after his son. Why did Cain murder his brother?
