What connects the two types of lust murderers is an obsessive fantasy of the act, beginning long before it is committed. This theory offers an explanation of why the murders stopped, because they did, with Kelly's death. Also available as eBook. Since this was the first indoor scene, where good evidence could be collected, a conscientious effort not to disturb it was made, and not until P. Robert Anderson, were Masons. This is further underscored, in my opinion, by the use of language in the letter. This description is accurate, it's another indication of a particular psychosis and mental instability.
