The negotiations unfolded in a tense atmosphere, for Hitler might attack in the West at any moment. I wanted to do what my good friend urged, so I smuggled a man, woman and two children as well as their twenty pieces of luggage amongst all sorts of dangers into the Grdnertal, where I got them identification papers and residence permits. For the foreseeable future, these people would have no choice but to lead life in Italian refugee camps because it was apparent that there was nowhere else for them to go. AcuradiOmeroProietti.
